The Next Level at LCC

LCC began as a passion for the people living in Southern Fauquier County. In seven years, almost 200 people have been baptized, and last Easter there were over 400 people in attendance at LCC's Easter services. The people of LCC have made some serious commitments to changing lives in our community.

As we celebrate our seventh anniversary we will be rolling out a new logo, mission statement and pathway for personal growth that will position

LCC to continue to impact this community and the surrounding region. We have worked hard to develop a system that makes it easy to experience positive life change in our area.

Don't miss the special anniversary services on June 27 at 9, 10:30, and noon. Pastor Wes will be teaching the new, simplified, and improved plan for life change. Whether you need some change in some area of life or you are interested in changing your world by becoming a positive life changer, you will discover the tools you need in this special service.

The best years of most churches are between 7 and 15 years. We are positioned as a church to have almost a decade of miracles as we move ahead in God's plan for this region.

Start today by inviting someone to one of LCC's anniversary events!

Pastor Wes's Notes

Seven years ago a small handful of people in my living room had the bright idea that they could allow God to use them to change lives in Southern Fauquier County. Looking back it seems impossible. God, however, specializes in impossible. With over 400 people attending our last Easter services, it is obvious to me that God can do anything.

The next season of LCC looks nearly as impossible. We face building obstacles, expansion through church planting and multiple campuses, financial needs, staffing requirements, and a huge spiritual battle. The next level always has the next level in spiritual opposition.

The great news is that God still specializes in impossible. He will take us to levels we never dreamed of if we let Him. We have increased 6,150% over the past seven years. If God does it again that means there will be 15,626 people at LCC in seven more years. The numbers might not excite you, but these numbers mean lives changed. Life change on that scale excites me. As a matter of fact I would give my life to see God do it in this region.

As we celebrate this anniversary, I want to challenge you to ask yourself what it would be worth to be a part of changing over 15,000 lives. If you are not excited enough to pay any price, I pray this anniversary will be the time God ignites a passion for life change in you.

We are about to enter our greatest season!

Wes
